

2019 Safe Food Handler Person-in Charge Training PiC (formerly level 1)

Safe Food Handler empowers employees as they learn how food becomes unsafe and what their role is in keeping food safe. ServSafe® is the industry standard for food safety education. Participants receive the ServSafe Food Handler Guide.

This class is for employees who prepare and serve food for others and are required by the Health Department to have Person-In-Charge training but NOT Manager Certification Food Protection (formerly Level 2). Upon completion of this 4-hour course, the employee will receive a certificate of completion. Instructor is Pat Holmes, who is an Ohio Department of Health approved provider.
